

Hon'ble the Chief Justice of Bombay High Court inaugurates joint LLM program of NISM and MNLU

Hon'ble the Chief Justice of Bombay High Court, Shri Dipankar Datta, inaugurated the LL.M. program in "Investment and Securities Law", today, in the presence of Chairman, SEBI, Shri Ajay Tyagi. The one year LL.M. program is jointly conducted by National Institute of Securities Markets (NISM) and Maharashtra National Law University, Mumbai (MNLU).

Vice Chancellor, MNLU, Mumbai, Prof. Dilip Ukey, Director, NISM & Whole Time Member, SEBI. Shri Santosh Kumar Mohanty, Registrars of NISM and MNLU were also present. Faculty members and Officers of both MNLU, Mumbai and NISM and newly admitted students of LL.M. 2021-22 batch also attended the inaugural function.

Hon'ble Chief Justice, Shri Dipankar Datta in his inaugural address, pointed to the growing importance of securities markets laws and regulations in the coming time. He told that students should read all the contemporary judgements relating to corporate laws and financial markets. He also exhorted the students to develop the necessary writing and communication skills while doing this program. He encouraged students to learn from each other the culture and trends along with the subject knowledge. He complimented the Director, NISM and Vice Chancellor MNLU, Mumbai for developing and executing the program successfully.

Shri Ajay Tyagi in his keynote address, said that Securities Laws provide a different kind of diversity and dynamism. On the one hand the students may learn through various corporate laws and securities market regulations and on the other hand students may also learn the research related to dynamic process of law making related to a market, where market is changing consistently. He also spoke about need of more legal professionals in the field of the securities market. Shri Tyagi also underlined the importance of research in securities laws.