NISM and SEBI National Financial Literacy Quiz 2025 with North-East Regional Round in Guwahati

Empowering India's Youth Through Financial Knowledge and Awareness

Mumbai, August 30-31, 2025 –The National Institute of Securities Markets (NISM), in collaboration with the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI), launched the National Financial Literacy Quiz (NFLQ) 2025. Around 2,50,000 students from all over India, participated in the online quiz and thereafter, the quiz is being held at various regions—Eastern, Southern, Northern, Central, Western and North East.

NFLQ 2025 is part of NISM's broader advocacy efforts to strengthen financial literacy among young learners. The initiative is aimed at undergraduate and postgraduate students and is designed to spread awareness about financial markets, investor rights, and the role of market intermediaries. It seeks to empower students with the knowledge they need to make informed decisions as they step into the financial world.

The north-east regional round of NFLQ was held on August 30-31, 2025 at Assam Don Bosco University, Azara Campus, Guwahati. Participants from around 55 undergraduates and 35 post-graduate institutes across north-eastern states: Arunachal Pradesh, Assam, Mizoram, Manipal, Meghalaya, Nagaland, Sikkim and Tripura participated. Earlier, central regional round was held on August 16-17, 2025 at Indore, the northern regional round was held at Gurugram on July 26-27, 2025, the southern regional round was held at Bengaluru on July 5-6, 2025 and the eastern regional round was held at Kolkata on June 21-22, 2025. The Regional Round was preceded by an online quiz round.

Further Regional Rounds are being conducted in another two cities.
